

Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy

Penny Lane Credit Services Ltd has a zero tolerance policy concerning bribery and corruption and prides itself in conducting all of its business with integrity and within the robust requirements of the Bribery Act 2010.

All staff of Penny Lane are obligated to perform the highest standards of ethical business practices to make sure honest company decisions are consistently taken.

Penny Lane does not accept, allow, or participate in bribery, corruption or improper payments of any kind in any of our business transactions.

Penny Lane insists on transparency and requires all staff to adhere to the company's Anti-Bribery Policy to minimise the risk of non-compliant behaviour.

Penny Lane's business policies support our strict adherence to the anti-bribery and corruption legislation and we endeavour to ensure every member of staff practices and promotes ethical and honest business practices at all times.

Any employee found in breach of our policies will be subject to immediate disciplinary action with punishments up to and including summary dismissal.

Any concerns or suspicions relating to bribery and corruption should be immediately reported to any Director of the business by email to info@pennylanepawnbrokers.co.uk
